DESCRIPTION

Former fortress dating from the 11th century, this historic monument overlooks the entire valley of the Combe de Savoie.

This castle consists of two parts:

The first part, historical, is a castle in ruins allowing to travel through the history of Savoy.

The second part with a magnificent family mansion, a chapel, a stable as well as a splendid landscaped garden where peace and quiet reign.

A walkway leads to a tower where the billiard room enjoys a breathtaking view of the valley.

The mansion dating from the 15th century, restored in the 19th century, offers magnificent reception rooms and a library on the ground floor. Upstairs, 15 bedrooms and numerous water points including a masterful suite in the vaulted tower.

This authentic place steeped in history offers beautiful volumes with noble materials.

Located 30 minutes from Chambéry, 1h15 from Lyon and Geneva airports and 1h from major Alpine ski resorts.
